CORE TEAM

Meet Carlé, the founder behind LIFE U DESIGN. With a wealth of experience in the residential sector, she is a versatile architect known for her expertise in creating remarkable living spaces.

Carlé's Expertise Spans:

- Architecture
- Concept Design
- Interior Design
- Technical design & Construction
- Planning and Statutory Approvals
- Residential and Commercial Projects
- Specification

Since the inception of LIFE U DESIGN, her focus has been on elevating the residential experience. From transformative refurbishments to expansive house extensions, large-scale residential developments, new build houses, and dynamic mixed-use projects, Carlé brings a blend of creativity and precision to every project.

Prior to establishing LIFE U DESIGN, Carlé left her mark on a diverse array of projects. From designing high-spec interiors to breathing new life into Listed buildings, from creating motor showrooms to enriching public spaces like libraries, her portfolio reflects a remarkable breadth of accomplishments.

One of her standout achievements is the iconic Meridian Quay project in Swansea. This 30-storey tower stands tall at the heart of a dynamic mixed-use development, boasting 291 residential units. It serves as a testament to Carlé's ability to shape the skyline and create spaces that inspire.

CORE TEAM

Meet Gilbert, a seasoned professional in the property industry, boasting qualifications as an Architect, Project Manager, and Party Wall Surveyor. Currently, he lends his expertise to an array of residential and mixed-use projects, supporting both property developers and homeowners alike.

Gilbert's Areas of Expertise Encompass:

- Party Wall Act 1996
- Architecture & Interior Design
- Project Management
- Contract Administration
- Planning and Statutory Approvals
- Property Development and Investment
- Residential and Commercial Projects
- Construction

With a well-rounded skill set, Gilbert embarked on his professional journey after earning his architecture degree in 2001. He enriched his experience at two dynamic architectural firms in the heart of London, namely Burrows and Cave International and John Seifert Architects. Notably, Gilbert spent a decade at BDP, where he had the privilege of collaborating with some of the United Kingdom's largest organizations.

In addition to his architectural prowess, Gilbert played a pivotal role at Acorn Property Group, serving as a client-side project manager for several notable Galliard Homes Projects. This role afforded him the opportunity to further deepen his expertise in property development and investment.

CORE SERVICES

ARCHITECTURE

At LIFE-U DESIGN, we offer a comprehensive range of architectural services, backed by extensive experience in creating both new build and refurbishment projects.

Our approach encompasses a range of procurement methods, including traditional and contractor-led, allowing us to tailor our delivery to suit the unique demands of each project. From modest house alterations to expansive multi-unit developments, our portfolio spans projects of varying scales. What unites them all is our unwavering commitment to infusing creativity and passion into every project.

Our core mission is to unlock the full potential of a property or site, seamlessly marrying innovative design with practicality, all while adding substantial value within defined cost parameters. Each project is meticulously tailored to the specific brief, financial considerations, and geographical context. We pride ourselves on actively listening to our clients and adeptly navigating the common challenges inherent in building design.

As a specialised consultancy, we are dedicated to delivering exceptional value without compromising on affordability. LIFE-U DESIGN stands as a trusted partner to a diverse clientele, including building owners, property developers, homeowners, and contractors. Our enduring relationships with numerous consultants and contractors attest to our commitment to long-term collaboration and excellence.

MULTI-DISCIPLINARY SERVICES

What truly sets us apart is our comprehensive, multi-disciplinary service offering. While Architecture and Interior Design are inseparable aspects of our practice, the expertise required for on-site project management demands an entirely different skill set encompassing contracts, risk assessment, procurement, payment valuations, insurances, and construction logistics, among others.

Simultaneously, our proficiency in Party Wall Surveying empowers us to proactively address all neighbouring concerns from the project's inception. With our in-house legal expertise, we ensure a seamless process.

The seamless integration of Planning, Technical Design, Project Management, and expertise in the Party Wall Act culminates in an elevated service offering for our clients.
